48 HOURS

08/05/17

48 HOURS: “Death By Text” – an updated rebroadcast about the death of Conrad Roy III, and the groundbreaking case against Michelle Carter, who prosecutors say influenced Roy, via text messages, to kill himself. On July 12, 2014, Conrad Roy died of carbon monoxide poisoning after sitting in his truck with a gas-powered water pump running in the backseat. Prosecutors say Roy was driven to kill himself through hundreds of incessant messages from Carter, who was more than 30 minutes away at the time he died. Carter was later charged with involuntary manslaughter. Her defense team maintains Roy decided to kill himself on his own. As seen through his own videos, Conrad Roy talked about his own struggles with social anxiety, depression and thoughts of suicide. His mother Lynn Roy, also talks about the death of her son and the pain she lives with. Though they lived an hour apart in Massachusetts, the couple communicated almost exclusively via texts, online and by phone. The prosecution maintained Carter could have done something to stop Roy. The heart of the case is the question of whether Carter’s texts and messages pushed Roy to take his life, or would he have done it anyway. Prosecutors argued that Carter played on Roy’s mental health and her actions were reckless; she knew what she was doing and just wanted attention. The defense maintains Carter had her own psychological problems and that she was also involuntarily intoxicated by the antidepressant drug Celexa: she was enmeshed in the delusion that it was a good thing to help him die. The prosecution hoped the judge paid attention to the text Carter sent to her friend a week after his death, in which she admitted she could possibly go to jail. After three days of deliberation, the judge rendered his verdict, completely rejecting Carter’s defense and finding her guilty. At sentencing Michelle Carter could receive twenty years behind bars. The Roy family knows that words have power, and that they can forever change lives. Update for the 08/05/17 updated rebroadcast: Nearly seven weeks after being convicted, Michelle Carter, arrives for sentencing. The prosecution asked that Carter serve 7-12 years in prison. Her attorney requests probation. Judge Lawrence Moniz sentences Michelle Carter to fifteen months behind bars – a sentence that does not please the defense, who will appeal the conviction. Her attorneys request to stay the jail sentence. The judge grants the stay, meaning Michelle will be out on probation until the appeal makes its way through the Massachusetts court system. Neither Michelle nor her family, have reached out to the Roy family. On-screen text graphic for the 08/05/17 updated rebroadcast: Lynn Roy has filed a 4.2 million wrongful death suit against Michelle Carter. The goal is to establish a memorial for Conrad. Interviewed: Lynn Roy (mother); Camdyn Roy and Morgan Roy (sisters); Aryanna Taylor (friend of Conrad Roy); Ed McFarland (Carter’s softball coach); Bob McGovern (Boston Herald legal columnist); Harold Koplewicz (child and adolescent psychiatrist). 08/12/17

48 HOURS: “Eleven Hundred Miles to Murder” - an investigation into the 2015 murder of Dr. Teresa Sievers, a Bonita Springs, Florida doctor murdered inside her home and the investigation that led to two suspects eleven hundred miles away in Missouri. Police initially suspected her husband Mark Sievers, but he had an airtight alibi. A tip led police on a 1,000 mile trip that took the case in an unexpected direction. Mark Sievers believed there might be a tie to other suspicious deaths of doctors around the country. Eventually, Mark Sievers became a person of interest. Two months after the murder, police arrested two men in Missouri and charged them with Dr. Sievers murder: Curtis Wayne Wright (aka Wayne Wright), and Jimmy Ray Rogers (aka “The Hammer”) traveled from Missouri to Florida and murdered Dr. Sievers. What would be the motive? Police learned that Wayne Wright was a friend of Mark Sievers; that Mark had taken out five life insurance policies on Dr. Sievers; that the two had an open marriage, money problems and other serious issues. Eight months after the murder, facing the death penalty, Wayne Wright admitted to killing Dr. Sievers and accused Mark Sievers of being the mastermind behind the crime. Mark Sievers was then charged with the murder of his wife. Mark Sievers and Jimmy “The Hammer” Rogers have both pleaded not guilty and will be tried together. On-screen text graphic: Mark Sievers and Wayne Wright are being held in different jails. Teresa’s mother is now guardian of the Sievers children. No trial date has been set. On-screen text graphic for the 08/12/17 rebroadcast: Teresa Sievers’ brother filed a wrongful death suit against Mark Sievers. 48 HOURS (continued)

08/19/17 48 HOURS: “Last Chance for Freedom” (8:00 – 9:00p) – an updated followup to “Reasonable Doubt” (OAD: 11/01/99), and its retitled rebroadcast, which included an update, “Impossible Mission” (OAD: 07/10/00). This followup continues the report on Crosley Green, who in 1990, despite his claims of innocence, was convicted of the murder of Charles “Chip” Flynn in a Titusville, Florida orange grove and sentenced to death. Green has spent the last 26 years, with help from lawyers and private investigators, trying to prove his innocence. This report reveals new evidence that suggests Crosley Green is innocent. At the time of the murder, Green was a small-time drug dealer who said he was two miles away when Flynn was killed. Green was arrested after Flynn’s former girlfriend, Kim Hallock, told police that she and Flynn had been carjacked by a black man with a gun and driven to a remote orange grove. Flynn was killed, but Hallock escaped. She identified Green from a picture photo lineup. Green’s state appeals -- nine of them -- are now exhausted, but his current attorneys Keith Harrison, Bob Rhoad and Jeane Thomas, along with an original private investigator Joe Moura (now a 48 HOURS consultant) have one last hope: federal court. They believe they have enough evidence that the conviction is part of a distinct pattern and practice of government misconduct in Brevard County. Three other men, Bill Dillion, Juan Ramos, and Wilton Dedge have had their convictions overturned; two of them were prosecuted by Christopher White. Green’s attorneys believe that what makes this case different is a mountain of evidence that demonstrates Crosley Green is actually innocent. At the heart of their case are notes from Assistant State’s Attorney Christopher White’s meeting with officers Mark Rixey and Diane Clarke (who speak to 48 HOURS for the first time). Green’s lawyer says that their notes say they think the girl (former girlfriend Kim Hallock) killed Flynn. White is asked about the possibility that Flynn’s death was a result of something other than intentional murder. He says he believes the judicial system worked. Update for the 08/19/17 updated followup: This past June, the 11th Circuit Federal Court of Appeals said it will allow Green’s attorneys to argue in person why his case should not have been dismissed. If the panel agrees, Green will finally get his case heard in federal court. On-screen text graphic: The Florida Attorney General’s Office is fighting to uphold Crosley Green’s conviction. They say Green failed to meet a filing deadline for his appeal. On-screen text graphic for the 08/19/17 updated followup: Crosley Green’s attorneys are expected to make their appeal in court in November 2017. Interviewed: Crosley Green; Keith Harrison, Bob Rhoad, Jeane Thomas (Green’s attorneys); Tim Curtis (bodyshop owner/friend of Chip Flynn); Joe Moura (private investigator/48 HOURS Consultant); Sheila Green (sister); Lisa DiMeo (criminologist); Mark Rixey and Diane Clarke (Brevard County officers); Christopher White (prosecutor); Bill Dillion (falsely convicted); Mike Pirolo (Dillion attorney); Wilton Dedge (falsely convicted). (C: Erin Moriarty – P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Doug Longhini) (OAD: 05/30/15)

08/19/17 48 HOURS PRESENTS: “Princess Diana: Her Life / Her Death / The Truth (9:00 – 11:00p) - a two-hour report examining the public and private life of Diana, Princess of Wales, who died on August 31, 1997 in a car crash with her boyfriend, Dodi Al Fayed, in the Alma tunnel in Paris. Through the words of those who knew her and admired her, through her own words, and through the archives of CBS News, this program examines the impact Princess Diana had on Great Britain, the monarchy and the world. From her 1981 wedding to Prince Charles until her tragic death, Diana was a complex, unpredictable woman who captured the hearts of the public -- during her royal marriage, her reemergence into public life following the royal divorce, her death and beyond. Her death was just as controversial as her life, as described through four independent investigations in two separate countries. The various theories are examined about what really happened the night she was killed in the car crash. The conclusion of the broadcast updates viewers on how her sons, Prince William and Prince Harry, are honoring their mother’s good works, which helped to bring the British monarchy into the modern age. Interviewed: Lana Marks (Diana’s friend); Patrick Jephson (Diana’s private secretary); Ken Wharfe (Diana’s Scotland Yard Royal Bodyguard); Sally Bedell Smith (author, Diana in Search of Herself); Ingrid Seward (editor, Majesty Magazine); Richard Kay (Diana’s friend, Royal Commentator, “Daily Mail”); Peter York (writer); Mary Robertson (Diana’s friend and employer); David Starkey (Royal Historian, CBS Consultant); Wayne Sleep (dancer); Trevor Rees-Jones and Kez Wingfield (Al Fayed Bodyguards); Roya Nikkahah (Royal Correspondent, “The Sunday Times”); Christina Lamb (Chief Correspondent, “The Sunday Times”); Tim Gunn (fashion consultant); Dai Davies (fmr. CBS NEWS SPECIAL / SPECIAL REPORTS

- 08/11/17 CBS NEWS SPECIAL: “Son of Sam” / The Killer Speaks - from 1976 to 1977, a serial killer terrorized New York City - killing six people and wounding seven others in seemingly random shootings. Originally dubbed the “.44 Caliber Killer” by New York newspapers, the victims were often couples in parked cars, and the women usually had shoulder-length, dark brown hair. As the victim count rose, the only substantial clues police had were two letters, one sent to the task force looking for the killer, and the other to newspaper columnist Jimmy Breslin, in which the killer identified himself as the “Son of Sam”. Diligent police work led to the capture of David Berkowitz, a 24-year-old postal worker from Yonkers, New York for the crimes. Now, in his first major television interview in a decade and his only interview about the 40th anniversary of his arrest, David Berkowitz speaks from Shawangunk Correctional Facility in Wallkill, New York. He tells Maurice DuBois (of WCBS-TV) about what led him to kill, his life before he became a murderer, and his life in prison today. Also included: interviews with shooting victims Carl Denaro and Robert Violante; Sam Roberts (former editor, New York Daily News); Capt. Joseph Borelli (“Son of Sam” task force); Bill Clarke (NYPD Homicide Detective); Dave Gorman (Berkowitz’ neighbor). 48 HOURS PRESENTS: LIVE TO TELL: “The Railroad Killer” - A report on the August 29, 1997 attack on two University of Kentucky students as they walked along the railroad tracks in Lexington, Kentucky. Chris Maier was killed by his attacker who then proceeded to stab, beat, and rape Holly Dunn, who miraculously survived her injuries. Fourteen months after Holly’s attack, Dr. Claudia Benton was murdered inside her Houston, Texas area home, located near railroad tracks. Lexington Detective Craig Sorrell received a call from ViCAP, a national crime registry database, linking the crimes. Through fingerprint analysis, they identified Rafael Resendez-Ramirez as the suspect. After his arrest, he was ultimately identified as Angel Maturino Resendiz. His trial started in May of 2000 in Houston; he was found guilty of capital murder. Holly testified in the penalty phase of the trial and identified Resendiz in court. The jury decided he was a future danger to society and the judge sentenced him to death. He was executed in June of 2006. Holly chose not to attend the execution. She has dedicated her life to helping other victims and founded Holly’s House, a child and adult advocacy center in Evansville, Indiana. Onscreen graphics: By the time of his execution, Resendiz was linked to at least fifteen murders in six states. Authorities learned he killed a teenage couple in Florida, just months before he attacked Chris and Holly. Onscreen text graphic for the 08/03/13 rebroadcast: By the time of his execution, Resendez was linked to at least fifteen murders in six states. In July 2012, Holly and her husband welcomed a baby boy. 09/09/17

48 HOURS: “Stalking: Out of the Shadows” (9:00-10:00p) and “Stalked” (10:00-11:00p) - a two-part investigation into stalking -- the victims, the stalkers, the dangers and long-term psychological damage this torment causes; and the efforts by actress Pauley Perrette to change ineffective laws that do not protect the victims. Also included: a report on the stalking death of singer Christina Grimmie, who was shot dead by an obsessed fan she didn’t even know was stalking her online; and an interview with Justin Massler -- a serial stalker with a diagnosed mental illness, who was arrested for stalking Ivanka Trump.

(1) Stalking: Out of the Shadows (9:00-10:00p) - the death of Christina Grimmie is detailed. She was shot dead by an obsessed fan she did not know was stalking her who showed up at a concert armed with two handguns and pulled the trigger, killing Grimmie and himself. The case was similar to the 1989 death of actress Rebecca Schaeffer, in that the stalker fantasizes that he is in a relationship with his victim and wants a permanent bond. Stalking is a silent crime with many victims afraid to speak out, fearing they will enrage their stalker. Also included: actress Pauley Perrette, a stalking victim herself, talks about her efforts to change stalking laws and the bonds she has formed with other victims. Perrette does not think her stalker will ever leave her alone. (OAD: 02/25/17)

(2) Stalked (10:00-11:00p) - some stalkers become obsessed with people they do not know. Leonora Claire has been stalked by a man she met only once, who read about her in a magazine and came to an art exhibit she curated. Serial stalker Justin Massler has been obsessed with her for nearly six years and she has lived in constant fear, believing he could harm her at any time. Massler, who has been diagnosed with a mental illness, will not leave her alone. In 2010, he was arrested for stalking Ivanka Trump, and previously targeted the Kardashian family. Now, the secret service is interested in him because of the Trump connection. Included is an interview with Massler, whom anchor Erin Moriarty tracked down and conducted an interview via the internet. His mother says he is living near her in Nevada and is getting medication. He has not contacted Leonora Claire in four months. On-screen text graphic: Christina Grimmie’s new single “Invisible” was just released by her family, ZXL Music and Republic Records. Proceeds will endow a memorial fund in her name. Learn more about stalking, what you can do to prevent it and what you can do if you’re being stalked. Go to 48Hours.com. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 09/16/17 48 HOURS: “Hunted” - an investigation into the case of a serial rapist, who preyed on women young and old, in multiple states and over a period of years -- and the search to stop him. The rapist worked with military precision, tracking the women’s schedules, photographing them during the attacks and then forcing the women to shower or bathe as a way to clear out any evidence. Investigators from two Colorado police departments (Golden and Westminister) and the FBI pieced together the assailant’s trail through smart policing, collaboration and luck. In 2011, a Golden, Colorado case, led to a similar case in nearby Westminister, Colorado. In comparing details of the attacks, detectives realized they were on the trail of a serial rapist. That information and another nearby case led them to Marc O’Leary, a 32-year-old Army veteran, who was eventually arrested. O’Leary ultimately pled guilty to sexual assault charges and then agreed to talk about the crimes. This led to a rare glimpse into the mind of a serial rapist, something detectives could never have imagined. Also featured is the story of a young Washington woman who the detectives discovered had been raped by O’Leary. Initially, the Lynnwood, Washington police did not believe her story. After the truth came out, the police force received training regarding this mistake. On-screen text graphic: Stacy Galbraith is now an agent for the Colorado Bureau of Investigation. Edna Hendershot was promoted to the rank of sergeant with the Westminister Police Department. Galbraith and Hendershot both stay in contact with the women Marc O’Leary attacked. Interviewed: Mary (rape victim, not her real name); Stacy Galbraith (Golden CO police detective); Edna Hendershot (Westminister, CO police detective); Jonny Grusing (FBI Special Agent); Bob Weiner (Deputy Jefferson County District Attorney); Amy Wozny (O’Leary’s former girlfriend); Julie Pech (potential victim); Rodney Cohnheim (Lynnwood, WA Police Department Commander). (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chris O’Connell, Lauren Clark, Lindsey Schwartz) (OAD: 11/19/16)
- 09/23/17 48 HOURS: SOLVE THIS CASE: “Who Killed Kay Wenal” - an investigation into the unsolved murder of Kay Wenal, who was found murdered inside her Georgia home in 2008. The case has been difficult to solve because there were no fingerprints, no evidence of a break-in and the killer took the weapon with him. Kay did not seem to have any enemies and her husband had a solid alibi. The only clues in the case are an expletive-filled cut-and-paste note sent to a newspaper and a police sketch of a suspect seen the day before and the day of the murder by a neighbor. Investigators are asking the public-at-large to help solve the crime. Gwinnett County Police Sergeant John Richter and Lieutenant Steven Shaw, the current detectives assigned to the case, and investigators hired by Hal Wenal -- John Inosigna, Ned Timmons, a retired FBI agent and his ex-wife, investigator Kathleen Timmons, and retired Gwinnett County Police Lieutenant Charlie Bishop discuss the case --including their theories. Former FBI profiler Mary Ellen O’Toole discusses her opinions regarding the note sent to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution. The hope is that exposing critical evidence to a nationwide audience on television, online and on social media platforms will help to solve this case. Also interviewed: Pam Sleeper (Kay Wenal’s sister); David Hughes (contractor/business associate). On-screen text graphic: Anyone with information is asked to contact: Gwinnett County Criminal Investigation Division anonymous tip line at 770-513-5390. Crime Stoppers Atlanta: 404-577-TIPS/1-404-423-8477. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Lisa Freed, Michelle Feuer) (OAD: 01/28/17)
- 09/30/17 48 HOURS SPECIAL: “OJ Simpson: Endgame” (9:00-10:00p) – on the eve of O.J. Simpson’s release from a Nevada prison after serving time on armed robbery charges, this report examines the ongoing fascination with former NFL star O.J. Simpson, the infamous and landmark trial for the murder of Nicole Brown Simpson and Ron Goldman, the controversy that surrounded it, the impact it had on race relations, how the verdict was more than just about a man on trial -- including the current and recent uproar over race, patriotism and free speech in America. Also included is the role of domestic violence in the murder trial and how the case impacted the careers of those involved. Interviewed: Fred Goldman (father of Ron Goldman); Tanya Brown (sister of Nicole Brown Simpson); Joe Bell (Simpson’s childhood friend); Harry Edwards (Prof. Emeritus, UC Berkeley); Ron Shipp (former LAPD Officer/Simpson friend); Jim Newton (former Los Angeles Times reporter); Sylvester Monroe (writer); Lili Anolik (Vanity Fair contributing editor); Kato Kaelin (infamous houseguest); members of Simpson’s defense team: Carl Douglas, F. Lee Bailey, Shawn Chapman Holley. (C: James Brown – P: Marcelena Spencer, James Stolz, Ruth Chenetz)

48 HOURS: “The Widow on Solway Road” (10:00-11:00p) – an investigation into the murder case against Raynella Leath for the death of her second husband, David Leath, who was found shot dead in his marital bed, the trial, and the mysterious death of the widow’s first husband, Ed Dossett, originally classified as an agricultural accident. Raynella and Ed Dossett were a power couple in Knoxville, Tennessee, where Dossett was the Knox County District Attorney General. Tragedy befell them, when Ed was diagnosed with terminal cancer; he then died in a freak accident on the family farm. Six months later, Raynella married David Leath, the local barber. After Leath’s death, the wheels of justice moved slowly, and Leath’s daughter, Cindy Wilkerson, filed a civil suit against Raynella. Prosecutors took notice and interest was revived in Dossett’s death. One theory was that Dossett’s unusual death was more about insurance money than cancer. His medical records were reviewed and the cause of death was ruled to be a morphine overdose. In 2009, Raynella went on trial for David Leath’s death but the jury deadlocked. In the second trial, she was convicted of first degree murder and sentenced to life in prison. After six years, the conviction was tossed out, because the judge was revealed to have been impaired by drug addiction. In 2017, fourteen years after Leath’s death, a third trial begins, but before the jury has a chance to deliberate, Judge Paul Summers (soon to be retiring), grants an acquittal (not guilty), dismissing the case; saying that prosecution had not met its case. Under Tennessee law, there is no appeal. Prosecutors are stunned. Jurors believe that, had they deliberated, they would have convicted her. Information also came to light about her trying to murder another man, Steve Walker, who had found out that his wife had given birth to Ed Dossett’s biological child. Raynella Leath is a free woman. On-screen text graphic: Prosecutors intend to file a petition to exhume the body of Raynella’s first husband, Ed Dossett, to gather more evidence. They will decide whether to review charges against her for his death. Raynella has moved back to the farm outside Knoxville on Solway Road. Interviewed: Diane Fanning (author); Cindy Wilderson (Leath’s daughter); Beth Roberts (Leath’s cousin); Steve Crump (prosecutor); Rebecca LeGrand and Josh Hedrick (defense attorneys); Dr. Greg Davis (Kentucky state medical examiner/defense consulting doctor); Steve Walker (intended victim); Paul Summers (trial judge, now retired); Michael Persicano, Jesse Caps, William McMichael (jurors) (C: Erin Moriarty – P: Josh Gaynor, Lisa Freed)

“Protecting the Sacred: Water, the Environment & Climate Change” – an interfaith special looking at how communities are responding to one of the greatest threats of our time. Featured are: (1) Dr. Christiana Zenner Peppard, associate professor of theology, science and ethics at Fordham University in New York, who discusses how water as a vital and life-giving resource is also one of the ways people feel the effects of climate change and what the implications are for individuals and society in the long term. (2) Last year, 10,000 Native American and non-native demonstrators took a stand against the construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline near Standing Rock Sioux Reservation in North Dakota. The construction of the fossil fuel pipeline near the tribe’s land put their only source of drinking water at risk. Tara Houska, national campaigns director for Honor the Earth and a member of the Couchiching First Nation in Ontario, reflects on native traditions, their role as environmental stewards and bringing attention to issues related to climate change. (3) Dr. Katharine Hayhoe, climate scientist and professor at Texas Tech University, speaks to the negative impact that climate change is having on the planet and how there is a narrow window of opportunity to mitigate further damage. (4) In Lancaster, PA, a grassroots coalition of people of faith and no particular faith formed “Lancaster Against Pipelines” three years ago to oppose the construction of a fossil fuel pipeline in the area. The Adorers of the Blood of Christ, a Catholic order of nuns, joined the resistance last year and recently filed a lawsuit against the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) for authorizing the construction and operation of the Atlantic Sunrise Pipeline. Among those interviewed: Malinda and Mark Clatterbuck, co-founders, Lancaster Against Pipelines and Sister Sara Dwyer, ASC. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Produce & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Natalie Baxter. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with Interfaith organizations, clergy, and Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Islamic, and Sikh scholars.)
